

Our family is overwhelmed with the outpouring of love given to us upon the death of our father. The support and concern for us and our mother is greatly appreciated. The flowers received are an excellent visual of the beautiful heaven in which Daddy is now residing.

